

SIXTH

Day of Cleveland Strike Marked by Violence

FIVE CARS ARE WRECKED

Many Passengers are Thrown Into Street by Explosions

Unions Denounce Cleveland Mayor Saying He is Opposed to Organized Labor.

Cleveland, May 22.—G. K. Shurtleff, general secretary of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A., was today agreed upon by the traction officials and union leaders as the third arbitrator in case the traction dispute can be submitted to arbitration. The strike leaders and traction officials are still in session today trying to settle the strike, but so far without effect. Mayor Johnson will try to have all high explosives removed from the city at once. He thinks this will stop the dynamite outrages.

Cleveland, O., May 22.—Violence, beginning late last night, again marked the sixth day of the strike of the motormen and conductors of the Municipal Traction company, despite the understanding that the differences are to be submitted to the board of arbitration for settlement.

Five cars were blown from the tracks by dynamite charges before 11:30 o'clock. In several instances passengers were injured, though not seriously, in the explosions. Two women were trampled by a crowd of panic-stricken men who ran East 106th street car was hurled from the tracks at Morrison street at 10 o'clock.

A great hole was torn in the floor of the car and the windows were shattered, falling glass cutting gashes in the cheeks of several passengers. The explosion was at the northern end of the Cross Town line.

At the southern end, and just after fully 125 people had alighted to go to an amusement resort just opened last night, a terrific explosion demolished the car, shattering windows for blocks about the scene. The car was hurled against an iron electric light pole. Motorman Kusta escaped injury by a miracle, while Policeman Sands who was on the rear platform, was thrown to the pavement and badly injured.

All the electric light and trolley poles were torn down, a great illumination causing a rumor that buildings were burning. The conductor, a new man, unknown to the motorman, fled.

Dynamite threw another crowded East One Hundred and Fifth street car off the track, hurling a score of passengers on route to the park to the pavement and inflicting bruises and cuts.

Other violence included the stoning of a Lorain avenue car, a conductor and passengers being hit, and the egg-throwing of a lone conductor on a Detroit car. Two men who were seen to place dynamite on the Lorain avenue tracks are being pursued by the police.

Arbitration, once tried in vain, may bring peace in the strike of conductors and motormen before another night.

Only rejection, by the ballots of the striking men or by vote of the strike breakers, of the terms of arbitration agreed upon by officers of the company and of the union and members of the Ohio Board of Arbitration can halt an effort to reconcile the differences which caused the violence marked strike in force since early last Saturday morning.

Each body must approve the form of arbitration and the personnel of the board.

The questions to be arbitrated are: Whether or not the two cent wage raise contract of the Cleveland Electric to its men is binding on the Municipal company, lessee of the lines. The obligation of the Municipal company to its striking employees. The method by which to determine seniority of men now striking and men now working.

The effect of an agreement between a local union and the Municipal company.

The revocation by the national union of a local union's charter without consent of the company.

This last is in reference to a dispute growing out of the fact that the old three cent fare employees' union charter was revoked and its members ordered to join the union of former Cleveland Electric employees, which ordered the present strike. The old three cent fare men refrained from joining that local and refused to quit their runs when the strike was ordered. The company seeks to deal with these men under the terms of its contract with the old union.

The strikers insist that all employees must be dealt with under the which ordered the strike, obtained from the lessor of the lines, the Cleveland Electric.

GOVERNOR'S VETO OF NEW PEN SEVERELY CONDEMNED BY THE OHIO STATE JOURNAL

The following article is the Ohio State Journal's account and comment on the vetoing of the General Assembly bill for a new penitentiary. As is well known the State Journal has been a staunch supporter of Governor Harris, but it could not approve of the efforts of the governor to thwart the wishes of legislature and of the people of this great state in the long sought and much needed reform. The veto comes as a great surprise and more especially so as Governor Harris gives "economy" as his reason for the veto, after allowing hundreds of thousands of dollars for the canals.

Advocates of prison reform will have to begin their work all over again when the next legislature convenes.

Governor Harris yesterday vetoed the Howe penitentiary commission bill, under which a beginning was to have been made of building a new, modern, scientifically constructed prison for the custody of Ohio convicts. The governor already had approved the item in the general appropriation bill of $200,000 for the purchase of a site, and this purchase together with the preparation of plans was all the commission could have done without further grants and approval by the legislature and the governor. But the bill would have committed the state to the project, and in course of time it would have been realized. Its realization would have meant Ohio's ceasing to be pointed to by the whole country as a bad example because of its antiquated convict system which is about on a par with that of Mississippi.

Because of the governor's known indisposition to use the veto power, and because of there not having been any public criticism of the passage of the bill by the legislature, its friends did not anticipate the governor's adverse action, nor so far as known, were they notified that the chief executive doubted its being a good measure and contemplated killing it. Accordingly the veto was a surprise to the public.

Some of the Columbus men who had worked for the bill were even more surprised than the general public, for they said the governor, at one time during its pendency in the legislature, had favored it and had displayed an active interest in its passage, going so far as to advise alterations in its provisions to improve it. These men charged that political considerations had a bearing on the veto. The governor, they said, desired to reappoint most of the members of the special commission, which had prepared the estimate of the cost, together with one expert biologist. The requirements of the bill that the commissioners should be experts interfered with carrying out this design, as did also the pressure upon the governor by opponents and their friends. Though he wished to appoint from Cleveland Commissioner Walker a member of the special penitentiary commission, the Republican organization of Cuyahoga county would not recommend Walker, but insisted upon ex-Sheriff Herman Baehr.

Dr. W. H. Manning of Dayton was strongly urged by the Harding faction, but his appointment would have been displeasing to the Baehr faction, and the governor was by no means anxious to become embroiled in the factional fight in his own congressional district. He is said to have wanted to reappoint the Columbus members of the special commission, General Henry C. Tabor and John J. Lawler. Here again he found strong Republican backing for ex-Warden Darby and Frank Cook, ex-clerk of the board of penitentiary managers, both of whom have valid pretensions to being considered experts in practical penology, though they have not qualified as theorists by writing learned treatises on criminology.

There was strong backing too, for the selection of Claude Meeker as one of the minority members of the commission to represent the Democrats.

The governor in his official statement cites the requirement that the commissioners must be experts in penology, and raises the question whether the state could afford the cost of the undertaking. He cites the estimate of the special commission that the final cost would be $2,600,000, and expresses the opinion that it would be more than that, but does not allude to the fact that the commission could not spend more than (Continued on page 4, 3d col.)

who are out of a job and jail are appointed to offices of responsibility. We should not be deceived, gentlemen, by the bunco 'square deal'. The panic of 1907 was presumptuous. It ought not to have come as it did during a Republican administration. The Republicans have always told us that panics are essentially the doings of the Democratic party. This panic came at a most unpropitious moment. It held up the hollow policy of the Republican claim that panics are the children of Democracy. The panic came during a Republican administration, and because of a high tariff fostered by the Republican party. It came, as all other panics and stringencies have come, through the Republican principles of high tariff. The big fish wished to swallow the little fish. He swallowed him and his appetite was abated. It was a move of capital, and Congress should investigate its cause and inform the people of the United States of the names of the pirates who shipwrecked prosperity.

"We should win, gentlemen. With a united Democracy and a divided Republican party, we should repeat our glorious victory of 1892. Possibly the Republican party will select the great 'I am' as its candidate. Possibly the heir apparent has already been nominated and selected to sit upon the throne, but with our united Democracy we need fear nothing."

Hooperville, Ia., May 22.—Reaching into a nest where she expected to find a part of the days laying of eggs, Hazel, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Morgan, was bitten by a snake. The reptile, coiled in the nest, sank its fangs into the flesh of her hand and she is in a critical condition. After the snake had been killed, a china next egg was discovered in its body, which it had swallowed from the hen's nest.

LOVERS

Meet On Train After Separation of Forty Years Become Reconciled and Are Married.

Defiance, O., May 22.—A romantic story of a renewal of old love culminated when Rev. Mr. Lance, of St. Paul's M. E. church, performed the ceremony uniting Jacob Lewis of Shelby, O., and Mrs. Jennie Cole, of Hicksville, O.

Forty years ago the couple were lovers. They became separated and both married. Four children greeted each of the homes. Lewis became a widower and Mrs. Cole a widow.

Wednesday, Mrs. Cole was in Defiance shopping and Lewis was on a B. & O. train which Mrs. Cole boarded. They recognized each other, came back to Defiance on the next train and had the knot tied.

ROOSEVELT SCORED BY OKLAHOMA'S U. S. SENATOR

Washington, May 22.—President Roosevelt and the Republican party received a scathing arraignment at the hands of Thomas P. Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, during a speech to the District of Columbia Democratic convention yesterday afternoon. Gore said:

"The chief executive is and has been for some time afflicted with a malignant attack of plutophilia. Undesirable citizens, rapidly-filling clubs of Ananias and malefactors of great wealth are in the range of his wrath. None can hope to escape him and his powerful big stick unless they are contributors to 'my campaign fund,' or are in 'my cabinet.' Louis XIV. said: 'I am the state.' Roosevelt goes one better, and says, 'I am the United States.'"

"In the last 11 years of Republican misrule, 440 industrial combinations, call them what you will, have been organized in the United States; grasping and oppressive combinations of capital have been formed for the benevolent purpose of robbing the American people from the cradle to the grave. What has escaped their greedy grasp? They have rifled the swaddling clothes, and have laid tribute upon the coffin and the winding sheet. Could they do it, they would willingly place a meter on the mother's breast and charge the infant by the dream."

"We should thank God that the administration has been antagonistic to industrial combination. With Roosevelt's wrath hanging over them, more combinations of concentrated wealth have been formed in the last 11 years, of Republican misrule than since the time the stars shone and water danced about a dawning creation. From Tyrus to Theodore, from Ramezes to Roosevelt. The people should not trust a party that will not trust the people. I come from a state that stands foremost for Democracy. In Oklahoma the governed govern, but even in my state the Rough Riders had favored it and had displayed an active interest in its passage, going so far as to advise alterations in its provisions to improve it. These men charged that political considerations had a bearing on the veto. The governor, they said, desired to reappoint most of the members of the special commission, which had prepared the estimate of the cost, together with one expert biologist. HOUSE REJECTS

POSTOFFICE APPROPRIATION BILL WHICH INCLUDED SHIP SUBSIDY PROVISION.

Speaker Cannon Ordered Recapitulation and Fight Ensues on Sending Bill Back

Washington, May 22.—The conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill, including a provision for ship subsidy, was rejected by the house today by the vote of 147 to 155. The vote was so close that Speaker Cannon ordered a recapitulation. The recapitulation showed the final vote to be 145 to 156. A fight then ensued on sending the bill back to the conference.

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATING.

New York, May 22.—The grand jury today started the investigation of perjury charges against Mrs. Mae Wood. No one came to the woman's aid today with the $5,000 bail needed for her release.

WILL FOUND RUSSIAN NATIONAL BANK

St. Petersburg, May 22.—An interesting oratorical duel occurred in the council of the empire between Count Witte and M. Koskovtzeff, the minister of finance regarding the construction of the Amur railways. Count Witte disapproved of the scheme, on the ground of the financial position of Russia, which, he said, does not allow of the expenditure.

M. Koskovtzeff reminded Count Witte that in 1890 he (Witte) presented a report to the emperor pointing out the necessity of the construction of this line. M. Koskovtzeff then declared that the necessary capital will be furnished by Russia.

According to the local press Count Witte is about to found a Russian national bank with a capital of milliard of rubles, of which 600,000 rubles has been subscribed already.

JAPAN WILL ARBITRATE

BARON TAKAHIRA, JAPANESE MINISTER AT WASHINGTON, MAKES STATEMENT.

Declares Island Kingdom is Ready to Lend Herself to Arbitration of Differences.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., May 22.—Notwithstanding Japan's proved prowess in the last dozen years and the teaming military spirit of the island kingdom, Baron Takahira, Japanese ambassador at Washington, declared before the Mohonk peace conference today that his nation is ready to lend herself to the arbitration of international differences.

Preacher, Barrel of Vinegar and a Bunch of Wall Paper Were the Principals.

Bedford, Ind., May 22.—A preacher a barrel of vinegar, a merchant, 14 rolls of wall paper, and a frisky team of young horses all figured in a sensational runaway that occurred between this city and Oolitic, at the Rawlings bridge over Salt creek. Felix Miller, of Oolitic, merchant, and Rev. Mr. Fridrick, a Methodist divine, of the same town, were in the wagon when the team became frightened and ran down the hill, striking the bridge, throwing the occupants out, the barrel of vinegar and the wall paper following. The vinegar barrel pinned the minister's coat, holding him fast, and the paper struck him on the head, cutting several gashes.

"GRAVE ROBBER" IN PENNSY CEMETERY

Pottstown, Pa., May 22.—After making night hideouts with his weird and terrifying howls, the strange animal that was captured tooting around the graves in Edgewood cemetery, escaped from its pen early yesterday morning and fresh tracks in the soft earth indicate that the so-called "grave-robbers" visited the cemetery again.

Jacob Green, a negro, who first discovered the beast, organized an armed posse and with 12 dogs, has been scouring the country all day to recapture the animal. Fearing the beast would visit the colored cemetery negroes have kept guard over the graves there all day.

The irrigated districts of Egypt comprise 5,340,000 acres and support 10,900,000 persons.

CORONER

Convinced That Old Veteran Was Killed in Asylum

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Was Taken Dead from Institution With Ribs Broken

Coroner Thinks Old Man Was Knocked Down and Stamped Upon Repeatedly.

Canton, Ohio, May 22.—"I am convinced that John Adams was beaten in the Massillon state hospital Friday night and that his death Sunday was due to injuries sustained in that asylum. I shall so state in my formal verdict."

This is the statement of Acting Coroner Bothwell, who has been investigating the death of an aged civil war veteran, who was taken dead from the hospital with four ribs broken.

"I am convinced," said Bothwell, "that the old man was first knocked down by a blow in the face and that he was kicked and stamped on repeatedly as he lay helpless on the floor. I shall ask a grand jury investigation."

CARS CRASH ON THE LOOP

NUMBER OF PERSONS SUFFERING INJURIES AND ONE OF THEM MAY DIE.

Broken Chain Responsible for Accident—Plunge Down Slope at Terrific Speed.

New York, May 22.—Between 20 and 25 persons suffered injuries in a crash of four cars on the loop at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn bridge early today. One may die. A broken brake chain on a Myrtle avenue car was responsible for the accident. Plunging down the slope at a terrific speed, the car collided with a Flatbush avenue car, tearing the front platform from the runaway and crushing the rear of the Flatbush avenue car. The impact tumbled the Flatbush car into the local and the local collided with another car.

CAREY SHRINE

VISITED BY THOUSANDS DURING THE ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE THIS WEEK.

Many Profess Miraculous Cures—A Pretty Candle Processional This Week.

Upper Sandusky, May 22.—The attendance at the annual pilgrimage to Our Lady of Consolation church at Carey is breaking all records. The church is the only pilgrimage shrine in America and contains a statue of supposed healing virtues. Fully a thousand strangers, claiming to have been cured, attended today.

A remarkable feature is that it never rains during the pilgrimage parade. Rev. Mr. Nizer, the pastor was assisted by Rev. Mr. Golden of Defiance, as celebrant and 50 other priests. Sermons were delivered by Rev. Mr. Horst of Huron and Rev. Mr. Medinger of Ottoville, the latter speaking of the beauties and powers of the Blessed Virgin and dwelt especially on her great power of consolation for those in sorrow or with afflictions. A grand procession occurred last night, thousands of candles being used. After this pretty procession, benediction services occurred at the shrine.

Many cures are reported as being effected at this pilgrimage, and the town is full of souvenir men and thousands of pilgrims slept in the open last night.

DEPUTY INSPECTOR APPOINTED TODAY

Columbus, May 22.—Nine additional district deputy state factory inspectors, provided for by the Reynolds law, were appointed by Chief Inspector Morgan and approved by Governor Harris today. They are: Walter Cranston of Columbus, Charles Marten, Cleveland; John W. Bunnell, Norwood; C. C. Leapley, Dayton; F. T. Christian, Akron; Wm. Cope, East Liverpool; John Reid, Youngstown; Arthur Hoerner, Lewisburg, and Chas. Calvin, Portsmouth. The new men will spend much of their time in school buildings.

BLOODLESS PEOPLE

Hundreds Are Suffering from Anemia and Don't Know It.

The Disease Approaches Stealthily, the Decline in Health is Gradual and Unless the Tonic Treatment is Taken May End Fatally.

Nothing in medical science is more direct and more reasonably certain than the action of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of anemia, a disease which is usually a condition approaching bloodlessness and which if neglected, inevitably results in decline and death. Anemia is stealthily in approaching its victim and often is well advanced before it is detected. On this account it is necessary to begin treatment as soon as the first symptoms are noted.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Pett, of 505 Ashland avenue, Buffalo, N. Y., was cured by these pills. She says:

"During the spring of three years ago I began to suffer with anemia. I was overworked and did not rest nor derive nourishment from my food. Everything I ate felt heavy in my stomach, gas formed on it and I had no appetite. My hands and feet were cold. I was troubled with dizzy spells and my lips and cheeks turned white. I had severe backaches at times and it was hard work for me to bend or stoop over to pick up anything. My sleep was restless, my head ached a great deal and I grew quite weak."

"I was sick about a year before I began to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They soon helped me and I used them until cured. My appetite became hearty, I grew strong and have since been entirely well. We consider the pills the best blood-builder and tonic medicine to be had."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest builder of rich, new blood and have been curing anemia and other blood diseases for nearly a generation, during which time they have come to be recognized as an invaluable household remedy.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing fuller information about anemia, rheumatism and other diseases of the blood will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $3.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

EAGLES

HAVE SECURED NOTED LECTURER AND READER FOR NEXT TUESDAY EVENING.

Program Will be Interspersed With Vocal and Instrumental Music. Fred Vogelmeier to Inspect Brick

John Philip Meakin, the noted lecturer, has been secured by the local committee of Eagles No. 357 to speak at Taylor Hall on next Tuesday evening. Under the auspices of the order. The grand president of the national order has requested Licking Arms to spare no pains or expense in making this appearance an event of the season.

The lecturer will be received by a committee from the localerie and will be escorted to Taylor hall where he will speak at 8 o'clock. The lecturer will be interspersed with readings from the favorite poets of the day including James Whitcomb Riley and others. Mr. Meakin is an authority on literature and a man whose extensive travels and study has won him prominence throughout the literary circles of the country.

Vocal and instrumental music will be furnished as a part of the program, and a violin solo by an artist of well known ability will be included.

Members of the order are making a big effort toward a most successful program. No admission will be charged and a general invitation is being extended to the public to attend the lecture.

WU ON STREET CAR ETHICS.

Chinese Minister Urges Countrymen to Give Up Seats to Women.

Chinese of New York city will in future be sure to rise and give their seats to women on the street cars, even if all Americans do not do so, for Wu Ting Fang, minister to the United States from China, recently told them that by following this custom they would make no mistake.

Mr. Wu was the central figure at a mass meeting held in the theater in Chinatown to aid the New York Confucian association, which will teach the morals and the precepts of the illustrious sage. The minister, clad in a formal costume, appeared for the first time in the quarter in response to an invitation from leading residents.

Mr. Wu endorsed the Confucian association, which is planning to erect a $100,000 building, with libraries, gymnasium and baths, something like a branch of the Young Men's Christian association. Although the ethics of Confucius will be taught there, no objection will be made to Christians joining it.

Wu Ting Fang said that he was not so particular about the kind of religion his fellow countrymen embraced provided that it was a good one and that they followed its precepts.

"In the same way," he continued, "to you all good American customs. One thing in which you may well emulate your American neighbors, my brethren, is in respect for women. I would see the social state of women improve in our own country, and I think it is gradually doing so. Here it is the custom for men when in a street car to give their seats to women. It is respectful and courteous, and I suggest to all of you that you observe this very commendable course."

"In fact, my brethren, you will also find that the American habit of paying good heed to what your wives say to you will be of benefit to you. The advice of a good woman profits much. It will keep you from the excesses of gambling and also from the use of tobacco, which is not good for you and gives you a shocking breath. About the only American custom I can think of now which I cannot commend to you is the habit of drinking whisky and brandy."

"STRAWBERRY EDITH."

Delicious Dish Invented by Escoffier, the Famous Chef.

Before sailing from New York for Europe Maitre Escoffier, the famous chef who invented many dishes that made Emperor William forget the charms of beer and sausage and who knows how to cook eggs in 108 different ways, left as a token of his appreciation his latest invention in the gastronomic line. The day he was to sail he placed before James B. Regan of the Knickerbocker hotel, whose guest he had been for a week, a dish of which strawberries was the foundation. Regan wanted more, but there was no more. It was the only sample of the new dish and Maitre Escoffier had tried it on Regan to see if it was worthy of leaving as a souvenir. He said it was "the strawberry Edith" and something entirely new.

It was offered to the guests of the Knickerbocker that night and made a great hit at 5 cents a dish. The demand for the recipe was so great that Mr. Regan made it public. Here it is: "Fresh strawberries rolled in vanilla sugar, flavored with curacao bitters, marsh-mallows in Melba dish, covered with whipped cream, flavored with vanilla sugar and violet leaves crushed."

DEATH LURING AT

How Mrs. Belle Guinness Enticed the Victims to Their Doom.

Mrs. Belle Guinness, who ran the "murder farm" at Laporte, Ind., used the following "matrimonial ad" with which victims were lured to death:

PERSONAL—Comely widow, who owns large farm in one of the finest districts in Laporte county, Ind., desires to make the acquaintance of gentleman unusually well provided with views of joining fortunes. No replies by letter considered unless sender is willing to follow answer with personal visit.

Carl Peterson of Waupaca, Wis., who corresponded for some time with Mrs. Guinness on matrimonial lines, answered one of these "ads," which was printed in the Scandinavian language. He received in reply the following letter, in which the woman used the initials of her second husband, Philip S. Guinness:

As some time ago I received from you a letter in answer to my ad. in the Scandinavian I will with pleasure answer the same. The reason I waited for some time is that there has been other answers to the ad. As usually as five have been received and it has been impossible to answer all. I have picked out the most respectable, and I have decided that yours is such.

First I will tell you that I am a Norwegian and have been in this country for twenty years. I live in Indiana, about fifty-nine miles from Chicago and one mile north of Laporte. I am the sole owner of a nice home, pretty location. There are seventy-five acres of land; also all kinds of cross improved land, apples, plums and currants. Am on a boulevard road and have a twelve room house, practically new, a windmill and all modern improvements situated in a beautiful suburb of Chicago, worth about $15,000.

All of this is pretty near paid for. It is in my own name and I have three small children, from five to eleven years old. The smallest is a little boy. The two largest are girls, all frisky and well. I lost my husband by accident five years ago and have since tried to get along as well as I could with what help I could hire. I am getting tired of this, and I have found that it is not well to trust others with so much.

It is too much for me to look after things and things are not as I want them any more. My idea of them is to take a partner to whom I can trust everything, and as we have no acquaintances ourselves I have decided that every applicant I have considered favorably must make a satisfactory deposit of cash or security. I think that is the best way for parties to keep away grifters who are always looking for such opportunities. I have had experience with them, as I can prove.

Now, if you think that you are able in some way to put up $1,000 cash we can talk matters over personally. If you cannot, it is worth while to consider? I would not care for you as a hired man, as I am tired of that and need a little rest in my home and near my children. I will close for this time. With friendly regards,

MRS. P. S. GUINNESS.

BANK SHORT ON KISSES.

Bachelor Cashier Will Honor Draft if Given Extension.

Benjamin Thomas, a schoolteacher residing at La Rue, Marion county, O., recently addressed a letter to a girl in Covington, Ky., inclosing a check written to her order for a thousand kisses and signed by himself.

The young woman sent the check to the La Rue bank. Morris Clements, the cashier and a wealthy bachelor, penned a reply, explaining his bank could not remit a draft to correspond with the demands of her check, but expressed his willingness personally to deliver the kisses as frequently as his position would permit him to leave town.

The Kentucky girl has not yet responded.

French Chemical Scarecrow.

According to recent experiments by Stanislas Tetard, a widely known French agriculturist, wheat and other cereals can be protected against the ravages of crows, which are particularly fond of the grain when its sprouts are just pushing above the ground, by treating the seeds before they are sown with a mixture of coal tar, petroleum and phenic acid. This treatment, which delays the growth of the seed for a day or two, but causes no damage, imparts an odor which is insufferable to the crows, but which disappears after the sprouts have attained a larger growth, when they are no longer subject to attack.

A "Zoological Oasis."

A project is being considered for the transference of the Jardin des Plantes to a site three miles outside Paris, where it is intended to create a "zoological oasis" in which the animals can have comparative liberty.

Beset With Luxuries.

One of the transatlantic lines has now put trained nurses on its ships. Pretty soon, remarks the Kennebec Journal, no man of moderate means can afford even to be seasick while crossing the ocean.

"Let Us Alone" Cry.

"Let us alone" is the cry we hear from the east and west, from far and near.

From the man on the farm, With his fertile land, From the man in the mill, With his willing hand, From the man in his store, With his goods for sale, From the man on the train, With his rusty rail, From the man in the bank, With the money there, From the man on the sea, With the weather fair, From the man with his pick, And a job in sight, From the millionaire, With his cash all right— From these and from those, the great and small.

Is coming the clear, insistent call: "Let us alone and we will run."

Again on the wings of enterprise, We have felt the stroke of the panting hand.

That has smitten the progress of the land, But the spirit remains, and we've got the goods.

That will bring us in safety out of the woods.

And get prosperity again on her throne— But let us alone; Say, LET US ALONE, Won't you?"

FOR BLIND RELIEF MUST PAY PHYSICIANS AND WITNESS FEES.

Ruling Received by Auditor Wright From Attorney General's Department.

It appears from a decision rendered by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices that the expenses of the witnesses and medical examiners in all cases of application for relief from the blind commission must be paid by the applicants and not by the county as has heretofore been done under the provisions of the old law. The physician making the examination of the applicant is entitled to $2 for his services, while each witness is entitled to $1 if he desires to ask for it. The witnesses are always persons who know the applicant and generally are near neighbors. The blind relief commission made out certificates for each physician who made an examination, and also a certificate for fees for each witness. Most of these have been given to the persons who were present before the commission, and some were presented to Auditor Wright for payment. Before issuing a warrant, however, he wanted a ruling upon the matter of fees, as the law only provides a fee for the members of the commission and the payment of the relief and not for fees for witnesses or physicians. He therefore referred the matter to the attorney general's department at Columbus for a ruling, and the matter was referred to the above department which gave the following decision:

Columbus, O., May 20, 1908.

Dr. J. N. Wright, County Auditor, Newark, O.

Dear Sir—Mr. Fullington has referred to this department your request to be advised as to what fees can be paid under the blind relief law. In reply we desire to say that this act passed by the Legislature April 2, 1908, provides no fees whatever for any officer except the members of the blind relief commission, who shall each receive $2 per day while in actual attendance upon duty, not to exceed five days in any one year, and mileage at the rate of eight cents per mile going and returning.

Very truly yours,

Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices.

Per A. B. Peckinpah.

It will thus be seen that the applicants will have to pay the physician who examined them and the witnesses who appeared for them before the commission for their services. The applicants will therefore, take notice of this matter and arrange accordingly.

Complaint Against Boys. Considerable complaint has been made of late regarding the activities of a large number of boys ranging in age from 5 to 15 or even 20 years, in the West End, in the vicinity of Linden avenue. The uproar became so great Thursday night that a resident of the vicinity was compelled to call a policeman.

Assault Case Ended. The long postponed case of Frank Fritz vs. Menzi Aglis whom he charged with striking him over the head with a pair of tongs, was brought up in police court this morning and the affair was threshed over by attorneys for the defense and prosecution. After hearing the case Mayor Atherton fined Aglis $5 and costs which was promptly paid.

Lightning Struck Home. During the electrical storm that passed over the city Thursday afternoon lightning entered the residence of J. D. Harper who lives just outside the city west of the Mt. Vernon road. Considerable damage was done. One chimney was knocked to smithereens, and glancing off, the bolt struck the slate roof and damaged about five square feet and then went straight down through the plaster in the second story, making a hole not larger than a half inch. Miss Besse Harper was engaged in cleaning the house and was directly under the place where the bolt entered, but aside from being stunned, was not injured.

Ex-Policeman's Statement. Ex-Policeman L. C. James called at the Advocate office Friday morning, and made the following statement concerning his connection with the "Woman in Black". He claims that the woman was a well known resident of the West End and says he was driving in that neighborhood, when the lady in question approached him and asked for protection claiming she was being annoyed by a number of small boys. He accommodated her, and drove her to the vicinity of her home, after which a plain clothes officer asked him to explain his actions to the captain of police, as complaint had been made by a number of West End residents that a woman of that description had been annoying them by window peeping. Mr. James called at police headquarters, made the explanation, and he states it was perfectly satisfactory to that officer.

No Rosin in It

Nothing but high grade soap and naphtha in P. & G. Naphtha Soap.

The first thing you notice, when you unwrap a cake of P. & G. Naphtha Soap is the color of it—white.

That shows there is no rosin in it.

Most naphtha soaps are yellow—they contain rosin.

There is a saying among soap manufacturers to the effect that 5 per cent. rosin in soap is all right; more than 5 per cent. is all wrong.

Some naphtha soaps contain as much as 25% rosin. Do you know why? Rosin is cheap. That is why.

And so we offer this advice: Never buy any other than a white naphtha soap.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is white—there is no rosin in it.

"SAMPLE" TICKETS

The Advocate has been requested by candidates and their friends to furnish them sample tickets for the primaries to behold tomorrow.

None have been given out from the office for the reason that the Board of Elections prohibited it in their order for printing the tickets. The office was not permitted to either print or give out extra tickets, which it is understood, would be in violation of the law.

But the candidates and their friends will find the ticket as it is printed in the paper quite sufficient as a sample for their purposes.

By cutting the ticket out of the paper and using it as a sample the friends of candidates can make full explanations to voters who may need information regarding the manner of voting.

VETO CONDEMNED BY LEADING PARTY ORGAN

In another portion of this issue is given a lengthy account of the governor's veto of the new penitentiary bill by the Ohio State Journal and the paper's condemnation of the act.
The leading Republican paper of the state is not backward in its disapproval of the governor's veto and the reasons he offers for his action, though it has all along been his strong supporter. The following is the Journal's editorial comment on the matter, which is both caustic and to the point:

"Every humane man and woman who knows anything of conditions at the Ohio penitentiary must be saddened by the news that the project for a new prison has been halted. The penitentiary now in use is a dark disgrace to the state of Ohio—a place at whose doors hope of future physical and moral health is all too often abandoned. This is the monument that stands to a system of economics which turns hundreds of thousands of dollars into the stagnant, festering canals, to be fished out greedily by political hangers-on, and which fills legislators' private pockets by the lawmakers' own votes."

It seems almost settled that Taft and Fairbanks will be the Republican nominees for president and vice president at Chicago, and the party spellbinders are already framing figures of speech about the breadth and length of the combination.

On the sea of matrimony a man must be stern to manage a woman who is forward.

ROOSEVELT GOT PAY IN HIS OWN COIN.

That grisly old Arkansas carpetbagger, Powell Clayton, turns up as one of the four members of the subcommittee of the Republican national committee that has selected Senator Burrows for temporary chairman of the Chicago convention. Clayton has a long memory, and he recalled the occasion in the Republican national convention of 1884 when Roosevelt and others defeated his own selection for temporary chairman by substituting Lynch, the colored member of Congress from Mississippi. Thus one good turn deserved another when Clayton had the opportunity of defeating Roosevelt's candidature for temporary chairman in the person of Senator Beveridge.

Of course it was an outrage to select Senator Burrows for temporary chairman of the Republican national convention. Any opposition to the President is an outrage, a crime, a betrayal, and usually it amounts to treason. Theodore Roosevelt is IT.
Opposition to him is opposition to the nation. It is the act of a traitor!

NOTICE OF THE TIME AND MODE

Of Holding the Democratic Primary Elections of Licking County
For the Year 1908.

Notice is hereby given by the Democratic Central Committee of Licking county, Ohio, that in the Annual May Convention of the party assembled on the 2d day of May, 1908, it was resolved:

That the primary election of the Democratic party of Licking county, Ohio, for the year 1908, be held under the enactment of the Legislature known as the Bronson law, and due notice to that effect be certified by the chairman and secretary of the County Democratic Central committee (which is hereby declared to be the controlling committee) to the deputy state supervisors and inspectors of elections. That the said primary election be held on

The 23d Day of May, 1908.
That the said voting precincts or polls open at 5:30 a. m. and remain open until 5:30 p. m., standard time, for the purpose of voting.

And that all persons who are resident electors of the precinct, ward or township in which he desires to vote and voted with the political party holding such primary at the last general election unless he be a first voter who shall become of age on the day following the next general election, shall be entitled to vote at said primary election.

And the Board of Deputy State
Supervisors of elections is hereby requested to make such provision as shall be reasonable for the transfer upon the registration books and the registration of all persons who may qualify themselves to vote at the next general election to be held after such primary election.

Under this call candidates for the following offices are to be nominated at said primary:

One candidate for Representative.
One candidate for Probate Judge.
One candidate for County Auditor.
One candidate for County Treasurer.
One candidate for Sheriff.
One candidate for Clerk of the Court.

One candidate for Prosecuting Attorney.

One candidate for County Recorder.

Three candidates for County Commissioner.

Three candidates for Infirmary Director.

One candidate for Coroner.

One candidate for County Surveyor.

One Central Committeeman for each voting precinct in the county.

Attest. ROBERT W. HOWARD,
Chairman

O. C. LARSON, Secretary.

GOVERNOR'S VETO

$200,000 unless future legislatures provided the money to go ahead. He ignored the opinion of Attorney General Ellis that the Cole excise tax law is in no danger because of the knocking out of the Texas railroad excise tax law, but declared the Cole law to be in jeopardy and gave that as a reason for not embarking on a new undertaking. Later in the day he issued a supplemental statement to the effect that the attorney general had said the Cole law was safe.

He referred to other large drafts upon the revenues of the state as a reason for not making this one, but doesn't specifically mention the fact that with his approval many thousands are to be spent on the canals, for new hospitals and for increased expenditures of almost $12,000,000, while only $200,000 will be saved by lopping off the penitentiary commission.

In vetoing the bill Governor Harris
made the following statement:

"I object to this bill for the following reasons:
"The bill provides that 'members of such commission shall be recognized authorities in penology and familiar with the latest experience and development in the construction, administration and care of the dependent and criminal classes.'"

"This provision, though loosely drawn, is mandatory, or at least directory, and the qualifications it prescribes for those who might be appointed as members of the commission are such as to render compliance with therewith practically impossible. Provision should have been made for a commission composed of one, or possibly two, recognized authorities in penology and four, or three men of large business experience and especially experienced in the building trades."

"Aside from this objection to the bill, there is presented the very important question, can the state afford a new penitentiary?"

"The commission appointed on Jan.
4 last in pursuance of the Senate joint resolution No. 6, after investigating the subject carefully, estimated that the new prison would cost $2,600,000.

of this nature has shown that original estimates are nearly always exceeded.
"The Supreme court of the United States in a recent decision in a Texas case held unconstitutional a law levying an excise tax on the gross receipts of a railroad company. This decision seems to place in jeopardy
the Cole excise tax law of this state and may reduce our state revenues
this year from that source to the extent of nearly $2,500,000.

"In view of the already large draft that have been made upon the revenues of the state, and the possible narrowing of its resources, I do not deem it advisable to embark upon this work at this time."

Later the governor made this statement:

"Upon consultation with the attorney general, I find that he holds that the decision of the United States Supreme court in the Texas tax case does not apply to a statute like the Cole law in Ohio. He says the Texas decision is based upon the fact that the gross receipts tax was an interference with interstate commerce and the Ohio gross receipts tax is levied only upon business done within the state. He holds further that such laws have been uniformly upheld and in several cases in which the state of Ohio was a party, I make this statement in order that no premature misapprehension may arise as to the validity of the excise tax upon public service corporations in this state."

in this city have been crowded with persons desiring a supply of poslam, the new cure for eczema. This is the drug which has created such a stir throughout the country since its dis-

For the convenience of those who use poslam for pimples, blackheads, blotches, red nose, acne, herpes and other minor skin troubles, a special 50-cent package has been adopted, in addition to the regular two dollar jar, which is now on sale at all leading drug stores.

In eczema cases, poslam stops the itching with first application and proceeds to heal, curing chronic cases in two weeks. In minor skin troubles, results show after an overnight application. For a free experimental

Don't Neglect Your Teeth

Many persons have a fashion of postponing the treatment of a bad tooth until forced by excessive pain, to seek a dentist for relief.
Nine times out of ten, the patient has waited too long and what would have been a simple and inexpensive case of filling calcs for a crown or artificial tooth costing a great deal more.
Don't neglect your teeth. They need your constant attention and a reliable dentist should be consulted when a cavity is first noticed or the least pain felt. By proper treatment your teeth may be preserved indefinitely and a great deal of expense and useless suffering avoided.
Ours is one of the best equipped dental parlors in the state. We fill teeth and supply crowns, bridgework and artificial teeth that are as near natural as it is possible to make them.

You Can Afford to Own a Ford

$750

Model "S," 4-Cylinder, 15 H. P. Roadster.

We have proved too conclusively that in addition to selling a runabout for $600 that's as well-built as any $1000 car made, the car can be driven by the most inexperienced operator, at a lower upkeep cost than any other car regardless of price.

Do you think it's too strong? Well, we have 16,000 Ford owners to back it up. There are several in your neighborhood; ask them and we will abide by their decision.

As Mr. Ford said: "I wanted to make a car that a man on a salary of $1200 or $1800 a year can afford to own"; and that's just exactly what he did, and two-thirds of the Ford cars in use today are owned by men on a salary—men who have found that a Ford was cheaper than a horse—cheaper than street cars and railroads.

We know you would like to own a car. Perhaps you think you cannot afford it. If that's the case just call at my garage and see for yourself how a good car can be secured at a very low price, and how economically that car can be maintained.

The 1908 model "S" Roadster; a 15 h. p. cylinder; rumble seat;

lar features of the highest priced car—$750.00.

Then there's the world-famous model "N" Runabout, 10,000 of which were sold in 1907—$600.00.

The model "S" Runabout, 4 cylinder, 15 h. p.; dependable and powerful—$700.00.
Ask to see the 6-cylinder, 40 h. p., model "K" Touring car or Roadster, at $2800, that is as high-grade a car as is possible to manufacture at any price—a car that will do anything any $5000 car will and do it better.

REP. HOWARD

Stops a Frightened Horse and Saves Little Girl in Buggy From Injury.

By timely action in jumping in front of a frightened horse, grasping the reins and stopping the animal, Representative R. W. Howard prevented a runaway and probably saved the life of a young girl sitting in the buggy on West Main street, Friday about 11:15. The woman who owned the rig, whose name was not learned, was doing some trading in the grocery and left the little girl, a child of possibly ten years, sitting in the buggy. The child was not holding to the lines and when the horse frightened at a passing car, would have been practically helpless but for the heroic action of the representative, who dashed to the head of the frightened animal and brought it to a stop before it got under any speed.

HIGH COMPLIMENT

Fred Vogelemeier to Inspect Brick Plant in New York for New York Capitalists.

Mr. Fred Vogelemeier of the firm of Vogelemeier Bros., Newark's brick manufacturers, leaves today for New York city for the purpose of inspecting a brick plant for a firm of New York capitalists, of which Mr. Wm. Kenna, who is a son-in-law of Mrs. Dennis Hickey, of this city, is a member, and at the solicitation of the gentlemen, as the firm contemplates taking over the plant. This is a high compliment to a Newark manufacturer and reflects credit on the mechanics of our city. Mr. Harry Vogelemeier, son of Mr. Wm. C. Vogelemeier, will accompany his "Uncle Fritz". This means that "New York will be done up proper". This is Harry's first trip east and if he doesn't see it all, it will not be the fault of his friend, Mr. Kenna.

CANAL FEEDER WILL BE FILLED

In a letter to the chief of the health department, Dr. W. H. Knauss, received Thursday afternoon, Chief Engineer Charles Perkins of the state board of public works, granted the city permission to fill the old feeder of the Ohio canal between Church and East Main streets. The board of public service Friday gave out the statement that the filling would be done at once, the dirt taken from the Clinton street excavation to be used for this purpose. There is still some stagnant water in the old feeder but the filling will be done over this and tiling will not be necessary to drain it. The feeder above Church street was filled two years ago.

California Alligator Farm.
One thousand alligators, ranging from the length of a lead pencil to monsters that could crush a man in their jaws, arrived at Los Angeles a few days ago from the southwestern part of Louisiana and were landed loose in a new gator farm in east Los Angeles. They were brought in a specially arranged freight car over the Southern Pacific. The increasing demand for alligator leather, which is converted into pocketbooks and handbags, makes the consignment of saurians valuable and accounts for the new industry started in Los Angeles.

Anniversary of Porcelain.
The two hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the secret for making hard or kaolinic porcelain—the "Dresden" and "Meissen" all the world admires—will be celebrated at Dresden in January next by a grand exhibition showing the historic development of porcelain making in Saxony as well as France, England, Prussia and Denmark.

AUTHOR

Of Number of Works of Fiction in the City Collecting For a New Book Which He Will Produce.

Hugo Everhardt, the author, has chosen Licking county as the field for the laying of the scenes of an interesting novel which he is now at work upon. Mr. Everhardt was a guest at a local hotel Thursday evening and left Friday morning for Granville and the Welsh Hills where he will enjoy a brief outing while picking out the scenes for his novel.

Mr. Everhardt is a Virginian who spent several years in newspaper work, but who has recently been devoting his time to novels and short stories. Among some of his best works are "The Guide," a melodramatic story of Rocky Mountain life; "Pens and Minds, A Fancy," which is a short descriptive work dealing with his experiences as a newspaper man; "Carole," a novel which is being widely read and which deals with the life of an Eastern college girl who goes to live with relatives in a lumber camp in the West; and numerous short stories which have been used by the various press associations and short story magazines.

Mr. Everhardt's latest effort, he says, will undoubtedly be his best as it is his intention to spend much time in investigating further into the history of the Moundbuilders, about whom his plot is to evolve. Briefly, the author's new work will deal with the love of two prehistoric beings and the trials entailed in winning their happiness, introducing, from history, as near as can be ascertained, the many queer and peculiar customs of the people long since extinct.

Particular attention will be paid to the "signal mounds," which are said to have been used by the Indians in more recent years, and by which, it is said, messages could be sent, by signal fires, from station to station all the distance from points in Pennsylvania and Virginia to stations in Arizona—almost completely across the continent.

The author cannot announce the possible time of completion of his new work but it will probably be placed on sale here and will doubtless be widely purchased by those interested in those unique prehistoric inhabitants of this country, and their barbaric customs.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

RECOVERING FROM DANGEROUS OPERATION

The many friends of Frank C. Miller will be glad to hear that he has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home on Indiana street from the Newark City Hospital. While at the hospital he underwent a dangerous operation performed by Dr. W. K. Essington, who successfully trepanned a bad depression caused by injuries received on the head some years ago. Mr. Miller is now rapidly recovering his former good health and expects to return to Columbus and resume his duties in the office of Mr. S. P. Ecker, auditor of the Hocking Valley railway.

NO TRESPASSING

Many trespassers on the levy built for protection of Licking County Children's Home land, the Orville Kiger and Lees farms, east of Newark, have done great damage recently and in consequence of their action 500 feet of the 2300 foot levy were washed out on the last freshet.

By direction of the commissioners of Licking county and the trustees of the Children's Home, I hereby serve notice that arrests of people trespassing upon this land or in any way interfering with the levy will be made promptly and parties will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

The House of Greater Values

Let us enumerate the three points which entitle us to this name. In the first instance we unquestionably carry the largest stock of clothing and other merchandise in this locality. Secondly we have the choice of purchase from the leading manufacturers in each line, and it has been our aim to select only those which we know to be foremost in style, quality, etc. We therefore feel that we have a distinct advantage in this respect. Third, the scope and extent of our business and our methods, enable us to retail at smaller margins of profit. Summing up these three points, it is easy to see that we are entitled to be known as THE HOUSE OF QUALITY. This naturally points a moral:—buy of us and save money.

Outing of the Elks Was a Big Success
In Every Detail—Elaborate Menu Served.

The first outing of the Elks this season was held on Beech Island, Buckeye Lake yesterday, and from every standpoint it was a huge success. Many resident and visiting Elks were in attendance.

A special car left the Interurban station at 9:15 carrying the advance guard and the necessary cooking utensils, etc., and from that time until 2 o'clock the stragglers arrived at the lake. Launches were in waiting and the "Bills" were taken to the island as fast as they arrived.

All day long a buffet luncheon was served under the trees and in "the house of mystery." At 2 o'clock an elaborate dinner replete with all the delicacies of the season was served to the Elks, and the afternoon was spent in various ways. Some stories are afloat of the "almost" catches that were made by some of the fishermen, but as none of the whoppers were landed to prove the stories there was doubt expressed as to the veracity of the wouldbe Isaac Walton's.

The hard rain and hail storm that struck Newark about 3 o'clock passed completely over the island and nothing happened to mar the outing.

LIGHTNING

Knocks Down Wm. Murphy of This City—His Watch Stops, But He is Uninjured.

Wm. Murphy, residing at 636 Eastern avenue, was knocked down by lightning in the severe electrical and hail storm yesterday. A watch which he was wearing stopped running when the lightning flashed, but on removing it from his pocket, started again.

Mr. Murphy was standing near a couch in his residence, when a blinding flash of lightning traveled through the house, knocking the man onto the couch. The lights in the house were put out of commission, but otherwise no damage was done. Mr. Murphy was only partly stunned by the shock and noticed no ill effects from it.

RESULTS OF CONFERENCE ON CONSERVING OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES

A hundred and twenty-two years ago the first President of the United States invited the governors of the several states to meet him in conference to consider the development of natural resources—the Potomac river as a waterway. Out of that conference and the need which it made evident of "a more perfect form of Union" grew the Constitution of the United States.

In 1908 the twenty-fifth President of the United States, following the precedent set by George Washington, invited the governors of the 51 States and territories now composing the nation, to a conference to consider the Conservation of Natural Resources—the preservation of Nature's gifts for the benefit of posterity.

That Conference, held in the White House in Washington on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, and presided over by President Roosevelt, seems likely to be the beginning of a movement out of which will grow public benefits quite comparable with those that have resulted from the Federal Constitution. That great instrument gave us a stable and efficient government, the greatest blessing that a civilized people can possess. But life itself—the life of the human race upon this planet—is conditioned on a supply of food, raiment and shelter; and the conference of last week was held to consider how the foundation sources out of which these elemental necessities of life are produced may be preserved for the benefit of coming generations.

It has been quite generally understood by scientists and engineers for a considerable time that our present day civilization has set a pace in using up Nature's stored treasures that was certain soon to exhaust them. But the few voices raised in warning have been voices of those crying in the wilderness. People in general have no conception whatever of the fact that there is a limit to the amount of stored fuel and metal and mineral, and that the world may suddenly awake one morning to find itself cold and hungry and Mother Nature's larder empty. Even intelligent men turn warnings like these aside with the cheerful assurance that new discoveries will be made and inventors will devise substitutes as one and another product grows scarce.

There is no doubt that further discoveries will be made of additional mineral resources, and that invention and ingenuity will do much to help put off the evil days of want that are surely coming. But inevitably sooner or later, the mineral deposits in the few hundred feet of rock near the surface of our planet, which are alone available to man, will be exhausted. Engineers know well that inventors work never work miracles, that no inventor ever made or will make something out of nothing. Substitutes may be developed; but the substitute is seldom as good as the original.

There is another reason why people in general are blind to the coming exhaustion of Nature's resources. It is this. In the development of our complex social system we have removed the consumer so far from the sources of production that he is densely ignorant whence the raw material for his sustenance comes. All he knows is that by paying the price he can always buy the thing he wants; and prices depend on too many variables for him to discover in rising prices the warning of actual scarcity approaching.

Thus the utterances of those who foresaw coming disaster have been little heeded. Waste and destruction have gone on for half a century at least in a manner which some future generation will look back upon as one of the greatest crimes ever committed against the welfare of the race. It was evident that some measure must be taken to arouse and enlighten the public concerning this great question. A few scientists and engineers in the City of Washington, most of them members of the Inland Waterways Commission, were impressed with the great need that something be done to check the waste of natural resources. They enlisted the interest of President Roosevelt, and his invitation was sent out to the Governors of every State of the Union to meet with him for conference on this matter.

It is well to note in passing that this is the first National convocation on this subject ever held. Of course other countries have given much study to various phases of the subject. The industrial nations of Europe have for years been closely watching their diminishing stores of coal and iron and husbanding their forest resources. Each nation, however, has felt vaguely that when its own supplies run short it could draw supplies from its neighbors; and it remained for the United States—the most wasteful of all nations doubtless—to awaken to the impending danger of world-wide scarcity and assemble representatives from all parts of its territory to discuss the situation.

ORPHIUM THEATRE.

Never in the history of Newark theatricals have the patrons of any theater been better pleased or more thoroughly satisfied than the Orpheum patrons this week, as the last half of the week has come up to the high standard set on the first half. Two more dainty bits of feminine beauty than the Rainbow Sisters are seldom seen. They have consummate skill, personal charms and a vivid sense of humor which all goes a long way toward making their act one of the most agreeable offerings of the season. The Musical Simpsons are a terrific success. Their act is one of the most unique musical offerings in vaudeville. It is charming in its high class refinement and the tuneful song numbers of Miss Simpson are given with a spirit of intellectuality that invests a different atmosphere. Mr. Simpson's xylophone solos are the best ever heard here. Klem and Erlanger met with a huge success, and rightly deserved it as they are laugh producers of the first water. Their act though, is not all comedy, as Mr. Klem does some very clever juggling.

Bob Wayman and his corkscrew dances won him a good sized share of the applause. Tonight Beeman Connors and Fanny Davis will be added to the regular bill.

CARL E. HOWELL

Architect Who Has Made Success of His Profession—What Columbus Papers Say.

In an extended story telling of the success of Columbus Art School students the Columbus Dispatch prints the following paragraph about Mr. Carl E. Howell of the firm of Howell & Thomas, architects, who are well known in this city:

Carl Howell, who recently returned to Columbus as architect and landscape gardener, received his first lessons there. Later he entered the University of Pennsylvania, where he took a post-graduate course in architecture and in 1905, won the John Stewart traveling scholarship which gave him a year abroad. This year was spent partly in general travel, part in studying the gardens of England, Southern Italy and Sicily, and in Spain, where he stayed for weeks in the Moorish fairyland, the palace and gardens of the Alhambra. Everywhere the garden in relation to the house was his special study and his success in this, his chosen field, is shown in the delightful residences of Mr. Henry S. Pleck, Mr. E. H. Everett, and Mr. Carl Norpell and several smaller but equally charming garden-set houses in Newark, Ohio and in Columbus, in the beautiful homes and gardens of Mr. Augustus T. Seymour on Hawthorne avenue, Mr. E. L. McCune on Woodland avenue, and Mr. John E. Hussey at Arlington, while among the prospective gardens that he has in charge are those of Miss Margaret Taylor and Miss Anne Parrott. Mr. Howell is a member of the T Square club of Philadelphia and of the Philadelphia Sketch club.

Mr. Howell and his partner, Mr. Thomas, who is also a skillful architect with abundant experience in practical work, are now engaged on some important work for Newark and Columbus people.

—Interesting News From Town
of Granville.

Granville, May 22.—Mr. George E. Stevens has just returned from a visit to Cincinnati, his old home. While there he called on his friend, Judge Judson Harmon, now candidate for the governorship. Judge Harmon told him definitely of his purpose to attend the Denison commencement with Mrs. Harmon.

Dr. E. W. Hunt of Denison university is even more in public demand this year than usual, especially by other institutions of learning. Last Sunday and next Sunday he is preacher at the University of Chicago, and the Daily Maroon of that institution gives also an interesting report of an address given by Dr. Hunt last Monday before the Junior college of the University. During this week he is in attendance upon the Baptist May Anniversary and the Northern Baptist convention at Oklahoma City. He is also a chief speaker this spring at the commencement of McMaster University, Toronto, Canada; Crozier Theological Seminary of Upland, Penn., a suburb of Philadelphia; and the high school of Delaware, O.

Mr. C. F. Mathews of Rochester Theological Seminary, '09, and his friend, Mr. L. H. Detwiler of '08, the same institution, are visiting friends in Granville. Mr. Detwiler took an honor fellowship in the seminary and will continue in residence there for the coming year taking special studies.
